

The National Assembly of Women

is saddened and sends our sincere condolences to Bill and family on the untimely death of our Secretary

Val Duncan

on Saturday 5th November 2011

Val always showed amazing courage and composure during her brave fight against cancer.

Her dedication to women's rights and equality was second to none.

www.sisters.org.uk
naw@sisters.org.uk